Nould Hold Three Titles,
Dave Swith, the Australian light heavyweight, and also claimant of that heavyweight champlorship of that country, wants to equal the record of Rob Fitzsimmons and hold three titles at one time. Dave writes that he is go ing to train and get down to weight at the Australian limit for a match with Mick King for the middleweight champlonship. King was not considered much of a fighter a year or two are, but during the past eight months he has some along nicely and won the title at 150 counds. In latest victim heing Gas Christie of Milwaukee, whom he defeated on points after 10 counds of hard battling. Have mays that if he wins the middleweight title he will immediately forfeit it back to king, as before he went aboud.

Coaches Find Numbering Does Not, as Feared, Allow Opponents to "Spot" Best Players and Attack Them; Triple Pass Is Feature Now and Is Among Season's Prettiest Plays.

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

New York. Nov. 7.—Football has been lifted from a game that lacked the spectacular to a game that is filled with the spectacular by the almost universal adoption this year of the open style game.

In other words, when line smashing ruled, the game had few real thrills for the spectators. They would see the teams line up and then they would see if men pile one on top of the other.

For shouldent ought to of spoiled your recerd. The girl give me the wink not to say nothing back or I might give him a peace of my mind. Respy. Bill.—Copyright, 1914, by Ring W. Lardner. end. The only profitable field for exhibiting the pletures would be the United States, with the war in full force in England and France, and the law will not permit them to be brought into this country.

The American sporting public wants to see Willard lick someons worth while in the heavyweight division before it will accept him as a contender for the world's title.

The State School of Mines did not play Saturday afternoon. A game between the collegians will probably be played next Saturday at Washington park. In their former game the college boys were victorious and the Y team is auxious for a return game.

Much interest is being manifesied here in the El Paso-Phoenix motorcy-cle race now being run. The winning car is expected to finish at the State

Baseball magnates and officials of the two major leagues are seriously considering holding the 1818 world's series in the Yale bow! John R Foster, secretary of the New York National league cinh, and others, have been talking of this.

But it hardly seems possible that a world's series championship series will erer he played on forcign grounds. As in the past, it will probably be played on the diamonds of the pennant winning teams. The attendance would hardly justify a change. Certainly 25,000 people would not journey to New Haven to see the games.

The attendance would hardly justify a change. Certainly 25,000 people would not journey to New Haven to see the games.

The claim that Connia Mack is the only manager to win six pennants is incorrect. Harry Wright won pennants for Boston in the National league in 1872, 1873, 1874 and 1875, and for Boston in the National league in 1872 and 1878.

E. Hewlitt, of Los Angeles, Cal., one of the best known auto race fans of the Pacific coast, is in El Paso to witness the start of the El Paso-Phoenix race. Mr. Hewlitt arrived Friday and after witnessing the start he will take the Golden State limited for Phoenix to see the finish. He is the head of the Fiat agency in Los Angeles. There are two of these cars in the El Paso-Phoenix race.

OHIO BOXERS CAN'T HIT HARD PLOWS

Cleveland, O., Nov. 7.-Local fight. fans agreed today that even amateur boxing is to be killed here-the home of practically every national amateur of practically every national amateur champion. The Ohio state amateur boxing tournament was turned into a farce when pelice captain Grani, acting as mayor Baker's personal representative, allowed the show to continue with the understanding that "no hard blows be hit." On one occasion a bout was stopped because the "cheering was tor loud."
